3.6(a)(1)

Primary enclosures.

The gates on seven of the dog enclosures have latches that are not functioning properly. After much use, the springs in the latches do not provide enough tension to hold the gates closed when the dogs jump on them. The licensee has attached dog collars to the effected gates to prevent them from opening completely, however, a 3"-4" gap is still present when the dogs jump against the gates.

Failure to maintain enclosure gates can allow for gaps which can result in injury, entrapment, or escape of the dogs.

Primary enclosures shall be maintained in good repair to protect the animals from injury and contain them.

Correct by: June 6, 2023.

This inspection and exit interview were conducted with the licensee.
